The Nationals lost another game to the Athletics on Saturday. The score was 14 to 4 and the result was mostly due to the ineffective pitching of Carsey, who was touched up for ten earned runs. Weyhing was also hit hard, but it did not matter, for the Athletics were getting the better of the business right along.
Washington's infield was in very bad form, seven errors—all the team made—being recorded against the four men on the circuit.
McCauley, Dowd and McLaughlin each made a couple and Hatfield was content with one.

The Athletics had tallied eight runs before the Nationals could make one. There was one in the first and four came in the third, while the fourth produced three more. These tallies of themselves would have won. Washington's first runs were made in the latter half of the fourth, when, after Sutcliffe and McLaughlin had gone down on balls, Carsey smashed out a Long John Healy tried his hand at pitching for Baltimore against Boston without success.

The Beancaters pounded him for seven runs in the third inning, after Baltimore had secured a good lead by hitting O'Brien, and Van Haltren finished out the game. The score was 13 to 10.

Louisville played a perfect game and St. Louis made four errors. Knell had wretched support and was hit hard, while Killen was very effective and was well backed up. That made all the difference in the world in the game in Milwaukee, which was won by the Brewers, 11 to 1. Milwaukee made eleven hits and four errors and Columbus made eleven hits and four errors and Columba two hits and nine errors.

The Statesmen batted well, but the other side always did better.

Shannon's position is yet indefinite, and yet he has done all that any man could have done. It is doubtful if a Comiskey or a Ward could have produced anything better with the disorganized team that was put into his hands.

The change of schedule splits the Baltimore series into two parts, and the Nationals will play in Boston in the meantime. The season play in Boston in the meantime. The season will close next Tuesday.
There is a growing belief that Dowd will be

But Matthew Sullivan Said He Only Had

Saturday when Matthew Sullivan eared in the Police Court he found three charges against him. Two of them alleged that he was disorderly in and about the religious tent near 10th and I streets, and the third charge was that he assaulted Policeman Daley. The latter stated that he arrested Sullivan at the meeting and he resisted, and during the struggle he struck witness. Sullivan, who is a colored man about thirty years old and whose plaid blouse, made after the fashion of those worn by Chinese, took the stand and declared that all he did at the meeting was to sing. He denied that he was drunk and said he did not have a drink last night.

"How about during the day?"
"I only had one in the afternoon."

"Strawberry."

This created a laugh among his colored friends, but he insisted that he was telling the truth, and called upon Preacher Young to help him out.

"He's my witness," said the officer.

"And he's mine, too," added Sullivan.

Preacher Young was called and he admitted that he thought Sullivan was under the influence of liquor and that the officer was sent for. what he knew of Sullivan's conduct was that the latter was singing a different chorus from the congregation, which caused laughter.

He hoped, however, that the court would forgive Sullivan. He said he would pay the damages and would see if he could not convert him wart work. Under the circumstances the judge imposed a fine of $2, which was paid by the minister, and he took Sullivan home.

SUNDAY PIRES IN ST. LOUIS. Nearly a Million Dollars' Worth of Property

Pive fires occurred in St. Louis yesterday. Two large mills were destroyed and the losses amounted to nearly a million dollars. The flames covered ashington as has THE EVENING STAR, and no the entire fifth floor before an engine arrived on the scene. It is supposed that two firemen were caught by the caving in of the building, as two are maising. Several were seriously in-jured by falling timbers. An alarm was turned in from corner of 10th and Spruce streets at 5:40 p.m. It was responded to slewly by the fire department, as most of the men and machines were combatting the flames on the Plant milling fire, which was not yet completely under control. GLADSTONE'S CHANCES. They Were Never Better-The Ministry

Special Cable Dispatch to the New York Herald.

LONDON, Sept. 26.—Mr. Gladstone will once more jump into the political arena in the coming week. Englishmen of all parties admire his vitality and like his pluck. Here he is at the age of eighty-two, with most of his old associates, from Sir Special Cable Dispatch to the New York Herald. with most of his old associates, from Sir Pobert Peel to Benjamin Disraeli, in the grave, hammering away as hard as ever. He has recovered this year from an illess which would

LIKE OUR PRESIDENTIAL TEAR. Already the candidates on both sides for nearly every constituency in the country have been chosen. It is like the year before the presidential election with you. There may be a dark horse or two destined to come to the front, but in the main the entries are complete and we know the past record connected with them.

The tories profess to be very confident of victory and the Gladstonians are full of hope and spirit. The latter have the most popular chief, for Lord Salisbury is not popular, and perhaps he has never sought to be. He prefers to live out of the public eye. No one has ever caught him swinging an ax for the amusement of a crowd of excursionists. To the public he is a great name and nothing more, whereas Gladstone is a vivid personality. That counts for much in such a struggle as that now before us, and which will win, in my opinion.

LIBERALS HAVE A GOOD CHANCE.

Gill and Boyle were in the points. Louisville made thirteen hits and five errors and St. Louis eight hits and two errors.

feel quite secure. That handicaps the conservatives heavily. The liberal seceders neutralized this force at the last election. It is made thirteen hits and five errors and St. Louis eight hits and two errors.

In the second game but six innings were played, but that was enough for Comiskey. The score was 11 to 0. The batteries were Meekin, Weaver and Cahill and Burrill, McCarthy, Boyle and Munyan. Weaver relieved Cahill behind the bat for Louisville and McCarthy. Boyle and Monyan to the boy and took Burrilly.

CONSERVATIVES TRY RADICAL MEASURES. Appearances indicate another great swing of the pendulum, with the Grand Old Man once more in office. The conservatives have tried more in office. The conservatives have tried hard to maintain their ground in public favor. They have passed all sorts of measures which are essentially radical, but the advantage is doubtful. Many tories are aggrieved at the sacrifice of principle made by their leaders. The radicals are not won over, because they prefer to go to the old stand for wares which the opposition profess to sell. Thus there is a certain loss and a very uncertain gain.

The ministry has been a close corporation. It has taken in no new men. Wealth and family influence have been the only passports to it, whereas the liberals are throwing off these relics of the past and are striking into new fields. Altogether Mr. Gladstone will be justified in the note of confidence he means to strike at Newcastle. He may again be soundly
